*P*oised between London's fashionable Chelsea and Knightsbridge, the Draycott Hotel offers the perfect home from home whatever the event. Whether it's a meeting, a private business dinner, a family occasion or something else entirely, you can be sure that the Draycott will provide you with an elegant backdrop for your gathering.

*T*he hotel was adapted from three grand, brick-faced Edwardian Houses, numbers 22, 24 and 26 Cadogan Gardens, and are part of the Cadogan Estate. Guests of the Draycott immediately sense its warm atmosphere which is like that of a welcoming private residence, albeit a grand Edwardian one, staffed by an impeccably trained team which takes pride in anticipating and attending to each guest's particular needs.

If you want your event to last a little longer, why not stay with us overnight? Our 35 beautifully appointed rooms are steeped in Edwardian splendour, adorned with high ceilings, fireplaces and carefully selected antiques. All rooms feature the modern amenities you would expect, a well-proportioned en-suite bathroom, air conditioning, satellite television and a CD music system. We also have complimentary Internet connectivity via wi-fi in every room and impeccable 24 hour room service.

To ensure that your event runs smoothly from start to finish, our Concierge team are at your disposal from the moment you arrive to assist with any requests you may have or last minute arrangements which are required.
